Opening Announcement

It is with pleasure that we announce the formation of The E. A. Gilmore Company to handle in Boston and Eastern Massachusetts the Lewis "VI," manufactured by the L. P. C. Co. of Racine, Wisconsin.

A Salesroom has been opened at 92 Massachusetts Avenue, near Newbury Street, where the car is now on view.

The Lewis "VI" has every possible refinement of Europe's latest models, everything that the most exacting owner could desire. Its simplicity of construction, ease in handling, economy of operation, beautiful lines and general richness of appearance make it a car that anyone is proud to drive.

The motor itself has been built in accordance with the latest improved engineering designs, the superiority of which was demonstrated at the Indianapolis races during 1914, wherein the first four cars were propelled by motors of this same type.

We have thoroughly investigated this car and the responsibility and experience of the men that build it. We have driven it under all road conditions, and have put it to the hardest tests that we could devise, and it has never disappointed. All that we ask is that whether you are interested in buying a car at this time or not, that you will call, examine the car, and let us give you a demonstration. The car will speak for itself.

What Amy Leslie of the Chicago Daily News wrote of the

Ziegfeld Follies The Greatest Ever

Such Beauty [Never Trod Upon the Stage; Such Comedy Never on Tap

Just when the word revue has strayed from its identifying firmament, from the pastorate of the inventive Ziegfeld, here comes that spectacular dreamer, with the most colossal assurance that his kind of a show belongs to Ziegfeld and to no usurpers of the idea, with an ultimate perfection in 'Follies' of this date up to the hour.

"Such beauty has never trod a stage, such comedy has never been on tap in such a persistent, original stream since Bert Williams and Leon Errol began occupying banner pedestals in the arena of laughs.

"Possibly a keener sense of obligations with rivalry in the field urged Mr. Ziegfeld to a monumental effort, and perhaps the quiet mind and whittled ambition which come of pleasant environment and outlook put him in a mood to invent and take fanciful flights. Whatever incentive the perpetually youthful and creative producer felt tugging at his wakeful and wasteful genius for entertainment, the result has been something delightful, and the open season at the New Amsterdam Theatre holds crowds of enchanted stay-at-homes and trailing riders from the closer resting places of the hunters for novelty. Leaning its heavily decorative beauty upon the black and Herculean shoulders of Bert Williams, the 'Ziegfeld Follies of 1914' sweeps across the empty promises as if there never had been another revue."

Can You Read French---But

Find It Difficult to Understand It When Spoken

Did you ever consider that the right sort of practice would enable you to readily understand it, and that then you would have confidence to enter into conversation at any time? I can teach you to become proficient in conversation. I desire to instruct only those who already know a little French, but cannot readily understand it when spoken. By my method you become so accustomed to sounds, the way of phrasing and the individualisms of expression, that you soon become adept in the art of conversing. Two or three hours each week will enable you to do this. No classes. I teach you individually in an effective way that makes your lessons a pleasure. M. L. E. THE REVERSE.—"You say your jewels were stolen while the family was at dinner?"

"No, no. This is an important robbery, officer. Our dinner was stolen while we were putting on our jewels."
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

WRECK OF DIPLOMACY.—Candidate for mayor (to his private secretary)—You tell me that he said my remarks were spasmodic and above the people's heads, do you? Now, what did he really say, anyway?

Secretary—Well, if you must have it, he said that you reminded him of a dog barking at the moon! (Subject dropped.)—Judge.

ROESSELE

PREMIUM LAGER

His perfect understanding of how best to brew the choicest materials has enabled him to eliminate all impurities which cause cloudiness when beer is served "Ice Cold."

In ordering your beer don't say to your dealer—"send me a case of beer"—say—"send me a case of Roessle."

You will find that nearly all dealers who sell bottled beer carry "Roessle" because it is the popular beer of the day.

Once you have tasted it you will understand why Roessle is known as "THE MASTER BREWERS MASTER BREW."
